DOORPOST DEVO

Matthew 5:38-48
Disciples Love Enemies

Every disciple knows that we are called by Jesus to be lights in the world. All of us realize the urgent need for this, as it is no secret that the world is exceedingly dark. So how are we to be lights in the world? What will penetrate the darkness of selfishness, hatred, bitterness, and evil? It seems that many Christians have a well meaning but misguided notion that being light in the world simply means being nice, pleasant, and performing random acts of kindness throughout our lives. While we ought not underestimate the power of simple kindness and decency, such niceness is not distinctly Christian.
