True Blessing

We often claim that we are blessed when the circumstances of our life are generally positive. "I got a raise so I'm blessed" or "I'm healthy, so I'm blessed." Certainly God's gifts of money and good health can be blessings, but these material things are not the measuring sticks of blessedness. If our idea of the blessed life is in temporary things, we will be severely disappointed and never satisfied. True blessing comes from a connection to the Lord of all blessing. I am truly blessed when I have a source of eternal hope and guidance that allows me to face any difficulty in life with joy and confidence. And it is this joyful confidence that allows me to bless others. I am not always grasping for more selfishly; rather, I am connected to a source of goodness that overflows and never runs out of life-giving fruit.

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers." (Psalm 1:1-3)
