CASUAL

Casual is an adjective used to modify many words today – a meal, a friend, an acquaintance, a vacation, attire, a meeting and many more. Right up front, this note is not to condemn casual dress in worship. After Bro. Adam's good lesson on distractions, now is a good time to follow it.

Think about it – is God's relationship with us casual?

Below are three of several definitions found in Webster's dictionary for the word casual.

1. Feeling or showing little concern – Our Father has so much concern for us that he had a plan for our salvation from the time we were made.
2. Lacking a high degree of interest or devotion – God is so devoted to us that he gave His only Son as a sacrifice for us and had to watch His plan take place.
3. Done without serious intent or commitment – God, our Father is so committed to our life with Him that He pours out his Love, Mercy and Grace if we will only accept it.

Now, how is our relationship with God? Is it casual or is it filled with concern for His teachings, devoted to His Son and committed to a life in Heaven?
