Procrastination

Has procrastination ever gotten you in hot water with loved ones?

A farm boy accidentally overturned his wagonload of corn in the road. The farmer who lived nearby came to investigate.

"Hey, Willis," he called out, "forget your troubles for a spell and come on in and have dinner with us. Then I'll help you get the wagon up." "That's mighty nice of you," the boy answered, "But I don't think Pa would like me to."

"Aw, come on, son!" the farmer insisted. "Well, okay," Willis finally agreed. "But Pa ain't gonna like it."

After a hearty dinner, Willis thanked his host and they headed outside to the overturned corn. "I feel a lot better now, but I just know Pa is going to be real upset."

"Don't be foolish!" said the neighbor. "By the way, where is he?"

Willis responded, "Under the wagon."

Sometimes, God calls us to action without delay. In Psalm 119 we read: "I will hasten and not delay to obey your commands."
