THE GOOD THAT MEN DO LIVES AFTER THEM

How true this is. There are so many individuals that we can look back at here at Rossville, in our world and in the Bible. Let's look at just a few. Joe Knowles and Charlie Green gave so much to the work of the church. Barbara Turner was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother as well as a faithful Sunday School teacher. Dr. Jonas Salk was an early developer of a polio vaccine. Clara Barton started the American Red Cross. Look at the lives of Peter, James and John. The greatest good of all was when our Savior gave his life for our sins. "Who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works" Titus 2:14 (ESV). Christ wants Christians to do good not for self-glory but for the good that that carries on even through the ages. We should always look for opportunities to do good. Who knows! It could change a life some day or maybe even the world!
