DON'T WORRY. BE HAPPY.

Consider waking up to a dense fog that covers a seven-city-block area. Now this fog is actually comprised of less than one glass of water - Not much substance is there but those millions of droplets can cripple an entire city. In the same way, worry and anxiety can cover us to the point that we're paralyzed. It can stop us in our tracks and keep us from actually resolving the problem or concern at hand.

In Hebrews 11 and verse 1, we read: "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." If you think about it, Worry is in a sense the exact opposite of this - it is the assurance of some disaster, or the conviction that we will be defeated or diminished in some way. In other words, worry is wasting today's time to clutter up tomorrow's opportunities with yesterday's troubles. The singer Bobby McFerrin puts it this way: Don't worry. Be happy.

Set your clocks back one hour on Saturday, November 5th before you go to bed.
